

TUESDAY, AUGUST 28, 1744.

Rome, August. 12.

According to the Accounts that are brought us by a Courier from Veletri, who is just arrived, the Austrians have no great Need to boast of their late Attempt; the Count de Gages was gone to visit the Posts on the Mountains; the Duke de Castro-Pignano had the Charge of the King's Person, and the Town; in which he behaved himself very well, and made a vigorous Defence, without running into Confusion. The Count de Gages, on the first News of the Attempt, threw four Battalions into the City, which had a very good Effect; and the King of the Two Sicilies being once disengaged, put himself at the Head of the Spanish Guards, and repaired immediately to the Retrenchments, where the Dispute continued very warm for about an Hour; when a Shower of Royal Grenades from the Top of the Mountain Artemeso, drove the Austrians into their Camp, and put an End to an Action of seven Hours Continuance. They insist, that the Austrians have suffer'd considerably; that they have not lost less than 1000 Men, among whom are Major-General Novati, and Colonel Stambach.

Berlin, August 22. We have received Advice, that the Princess Royal of Sweden embark'd at Stralsund on the 9th, about Four in the Afternoon, on board the Swedish Man of War, called the Ulrica, with the Senator Tessin, who had performed the Functions of Ambassador Extraordinary from Sweden; that the Count de Finckenstein, his Majesty's Minister to the Court of Sweden, embark'd on board the King Frederick, with the best Part of the Gentlemen who belonged to the Swedish Embassy; that the rest of the Count de Tessin's Retinue embark'd on board the Bremen, which, with the other two Ships that compos'd the Squadron, sail'd on the 3th about Noon. The same Day, about Five o'Clock, there arose a most violent Storm, insomuch that none of the Squadron was able to carry so much as a Knot of Canvas, but continued driving before the Wind. In this Storm, the King Frederick lost her Mainmast, and had five Seamen wash'd overboard. Towards the Morning of the 9th, the Weather grew calm; and at Seven in the Evening, they came to an Anchor in the Road of Carlskroon, where his Royal Swedish Highness came to meet, and receive, his Comfort, in a Shallop finely painted, and most magnificently gilt. Their Royal Highnesses were to set out on the 14th, for Calmar.

Vienna, August 19. The Lords, and other Members of the States of Hungary, which assembled at Presbourg by order of the Queen, open'd their Assembly on the 15th; and so much Zeal and Unanimity appear'd in their Deliberations, that having finished their Business, they proposed to break up this Day; and her Majesty proposes to return to this City To-morrow in the Afternoon. We apprehend, that the Secretary left by Count Dohna in this City, will remain here till such time as the Court informs him that his Presence is no longer necessary. Another Order has been issued by our Court, requiring all the Clergy in general to quit this City, within a certain Time, on pain of being sent Prisoners into Hungary. It is said, by our Court, a very great Piece of good Fortune, that the King of Prussia took the Road of Saxony, rather than that of Silesia, into Bohemia; which, it is supposed, will afford the Count de Bathiani Time to march to Prague, with the Army under his Command.

Frankfort, August 26. The young Count de Thoring was not set out for Metz, as is generally reported; but for Nuremberg, in order to be present at the extraordinary Diet of the States of Franconia, which is shortly to be held there. We have certain Advice, that Prince Charles of Lorraine repass'd the Rhine on the 23d, with considerable Loss. It is certain, that his Imperial Majesty will make the Campaign this Year. His Field Equipage is ordered to be ready by the 1st of next Month; the Field Marshals Seckendorff and Thoring, are to command under him. His Army will be entirely compos'd of Germans; but it is said, the M. de Mailbois will again visit the phala, with 30,000 Men.

Dusseldorf, August 27. His Serene Highness, the Elector of Cologne, has given Orders to all the Troops in his Service, to hold themselves ready to march; his Serene Highness intends to view the Garrison of Manheim in Person; and the Troops quarter'd elsewhere, will be reviewed by several General Officers, appointed for that Purpose. Orders have been also issued here, for visiting the Tents, and new ones may be given to such Regiments as have not enough to make the Campaign. These Circumstances seem to prove, that there is some Truth in the Report of our marching 5000 Men for the Service of the Emperor; and it is hoped, that the Count of Saxony will furnish double that Number; tho', at present, this seems to be a little doubtful.

From the Camp of the Allies near Lille, August 26, 1744.

The Contributions of this District are at last settled at 600,000 Crowns, tho' we demand two Millions. On the 24th the Hussars brought in 8 Prisoners, and among them an Officer, who defended himself very gallantly, and who receiv'd two dangerous Wounds; one on the Head, with a Sabre, and another across his Shoulders. He was immediately dismiss'd upon his Parole. This Gentleman had the Misfortune to be taken also at the Battle of Dettingen, where he receiv'd seven Wounds. It is said we shall very soon march towards Tournay; and the Title of a General again reviv'd. Most People here are of Opinion, that if it takes Place, it will be certainly Denny which we shall invest, on account of the great Train of heavy Artillery the French have in that Place.

Hague, September 2. According to our last Advices from Vienna, the King of Prussia will not be able to over-run Bohemia so easily as he imagin'd; since, besides her other Armies, the Queen of Hungary has the following Troops ready to oppose him; viz.

Twenty-one old Regiments of Foot, at	48,300
2300 each Regiment,
Eight of Carabassiers, at 1094 each Regiment,	8752
Two of Dragoons, at 1094 each Regiment,	2188
One of Hussars,	1300
A Corps of Croats in Bavaria,	5000
The Militia of Bohemia,	24,000
The Militia of Moravia,	8000
Wallachians and Hannacks,	4000
Militia of Tyrol that are to march through	5000
Bavaria,
The new Corps of Insurgents from Hungary,	20,000
	126,540

The Most Noble, Volatile SMELLING-BOTTLE in the World, lately much improved.

WHICH smelled to, instantly relieves

Persons in the most dismal fainting or swooning FITS, and in a Moment removes Flushings, Vapours, Dumbness, Head-ach, Megrims, &c. It takes off all heavy Sleepiness, retards Swoonings, keeps up the Spirits to a Miracle, and by its Use admits of no Fainting; but invigorates and enlivens the whole Man, recreates and makes cheerful, altho' never so sad, and in a Moment raises all the sensitive Faculties.

It is also to be taken inwardly by Drops, which effectually takes off and eradicates the very Cause; for it potently relieves, comforts, and strengthens the Brain, creates and corroborates the Stomach, removes Sickness from it, helps Digestion, cleanses the Blood; and, in a Word, is the greatest Cephalick, Stomachick, Hepatick, and powerful Aromatick possible.

Whereas many Persons of both Sexes perfume their Handkerchiefs with a few Drops of it, and find that in using it so, it is of singular Service in all the Cases above-mentioned; and many Gentlemen, Ladies and Others use it after this Manner, purely because it gives a most fragrant and delicious Odour, that constantly both delights and relieves the Senses, not only better than any thing of a musky Kind, (which is really hurtful to most Constitutions) but it really takes off what such Things do occasion; and also relieves the Head and Brain from any ill Effects of common Snuff, and instantly diverts from, and prevents the bad Consequences of any sudden, nauseous, offensive Smells; therefore it is extremely necessary for all Gentlemen, Ladies, &c. always to be carried in their Pockets.

Sold only at Mrs. Markham's Great Toy-shop, at the Seven Stars, now (since she is removed) directly over-against St. Dunstan's Church in Fleet-street, and at Mr. King's Picture-shop in the Poultry, near the Royal Exchange, at 2s. 6d. each.
